

Colonel Luca Parmeggiani has been employed in the General Defence Staff from 2018 to 2019 as Point of Contact for Permanent Structured Cooperation (PESCO) programmes of the European Union - European Defence Agency (EDA). The year after, he attended the Senior Staff Course at the Italian Defense College and, finally, since 2020 he has worked at the Italian Armament Directorate, at the very beginning (from 2020 to 2022) as desk officer related to South America Countries and then, after the promotion to Colonel, as head of the armament policy office.