

Dr. Vaidotas Urbelis has been the Defense Policy Director at the Ministry of National Defense of Lithuania since 2020.

In this capacity, he is responsible for the conduct and management of multilateral, regional, and bilateral defense relations with all foreign governments. He develops, coordinates, and implements Lithuanian defense cooperation and represents Lithuania at NATO, the European Union, and other cooperation formats.

Before his current position, Dr Urbelis worked as Defense Adviser at the Lithuanian Embassy in Washington DC (2017-2020).