

The New Southbound Policy & Beyond

Agenda

01

Strategic Implications

NSP for Taiwan
NSP for Region
NSP for International Cooperation

02

Introduction to NSP

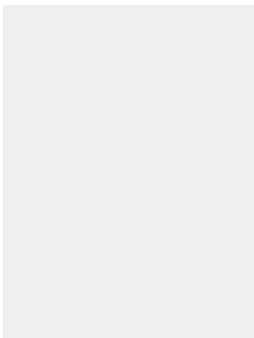

Core Concept
Partner Countries
Flagship Programs

03

The Way Forward

Possible Cooperation

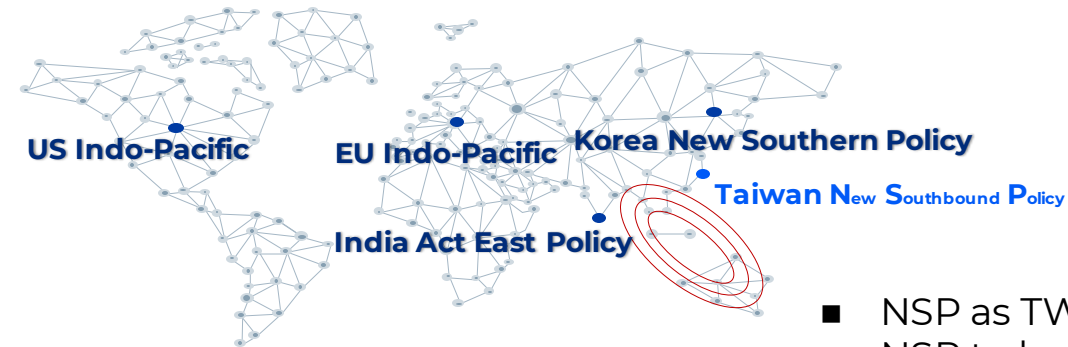

01

Strategic Implications

NSP for Taiwan, region, and International Cooperation

Taiwan and the Region

- NSP as TW core regional strategy for Asia
- NSP to build up people to people ties
- Leverage soft power for diplomacy
- Diversify economic structure

NSP also

- Contributes public goods
- Offers the Taiwan Model
- Complement other initiatives

For International Cooperation

- Deepen strategic cooperation
- Facilitate economic cooperation
- Promote human capital connectivity

02

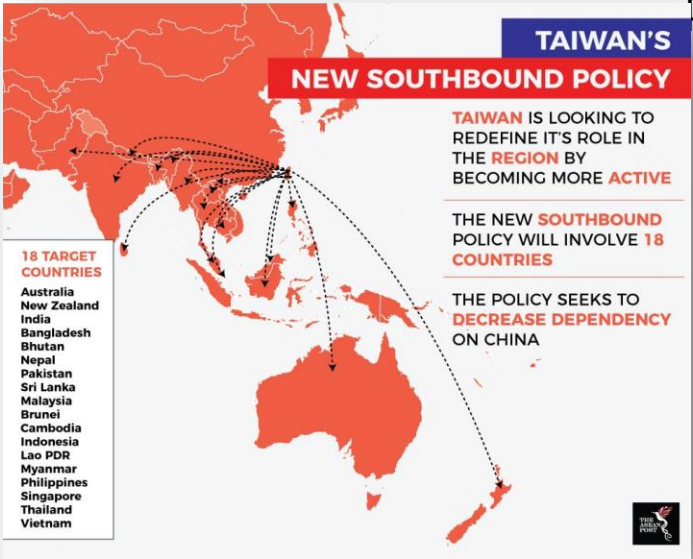

Introduction to NSP

Core Concept
& Current Flagship Programs

NSP Core Concept

Generating Taiwan's Soft Power to Foster Regional Prosperity With 18 Partner Countries

NSP Flagship Programs

NSP Prospective Programs

-  Regional Agricultural Development
-  Medical and Public Health Cooperation
-  Industrial Innovation & Cooperation
-  Industrial Talent Development
-  Yushan Forum: People-to-People

Former Australian Prime Minister Tony Abbott at the 5th Yushan Forum, 2021

NSP Flagship Programs

NSP Prospective Programs

- Cross-boarder e-Commerce
- Public Infrastructure
- Tourism

TAITRA e-Commerce platform, taiwan trade .com

Worth shopping at Taipei Ximem area

03

The Way Forward

Possible Areas of Cooperation

Next steps' cooperation

- Taiwan is willing and capable of cooperating with like-minded countries in the Indo-Pacific
- Possible Areas of Cooperation
 - Capacity Building Activities (GCTF)
 - Industrial Cooperation
 - Dialogues on Indo-Pacific

Thanks

