IRAN AND REGIONAL

By NESA Professor Dr. Gawdat Bahgat 18 March 2021 In November 2020, only days before he was elected President of the United States, then-candidate Joseph Biden stated, “I will offer Tehran a credible path back to diplomacy. If Iran returns to strict compliance with the nuclear deal, the United States would rejoin the agreement as Read More >

COMMENTARY ON THE BIDEN ADMINISTRATION’S “INTERIM NATIONAL SECURITY STRATEGIC GUIDANCE”

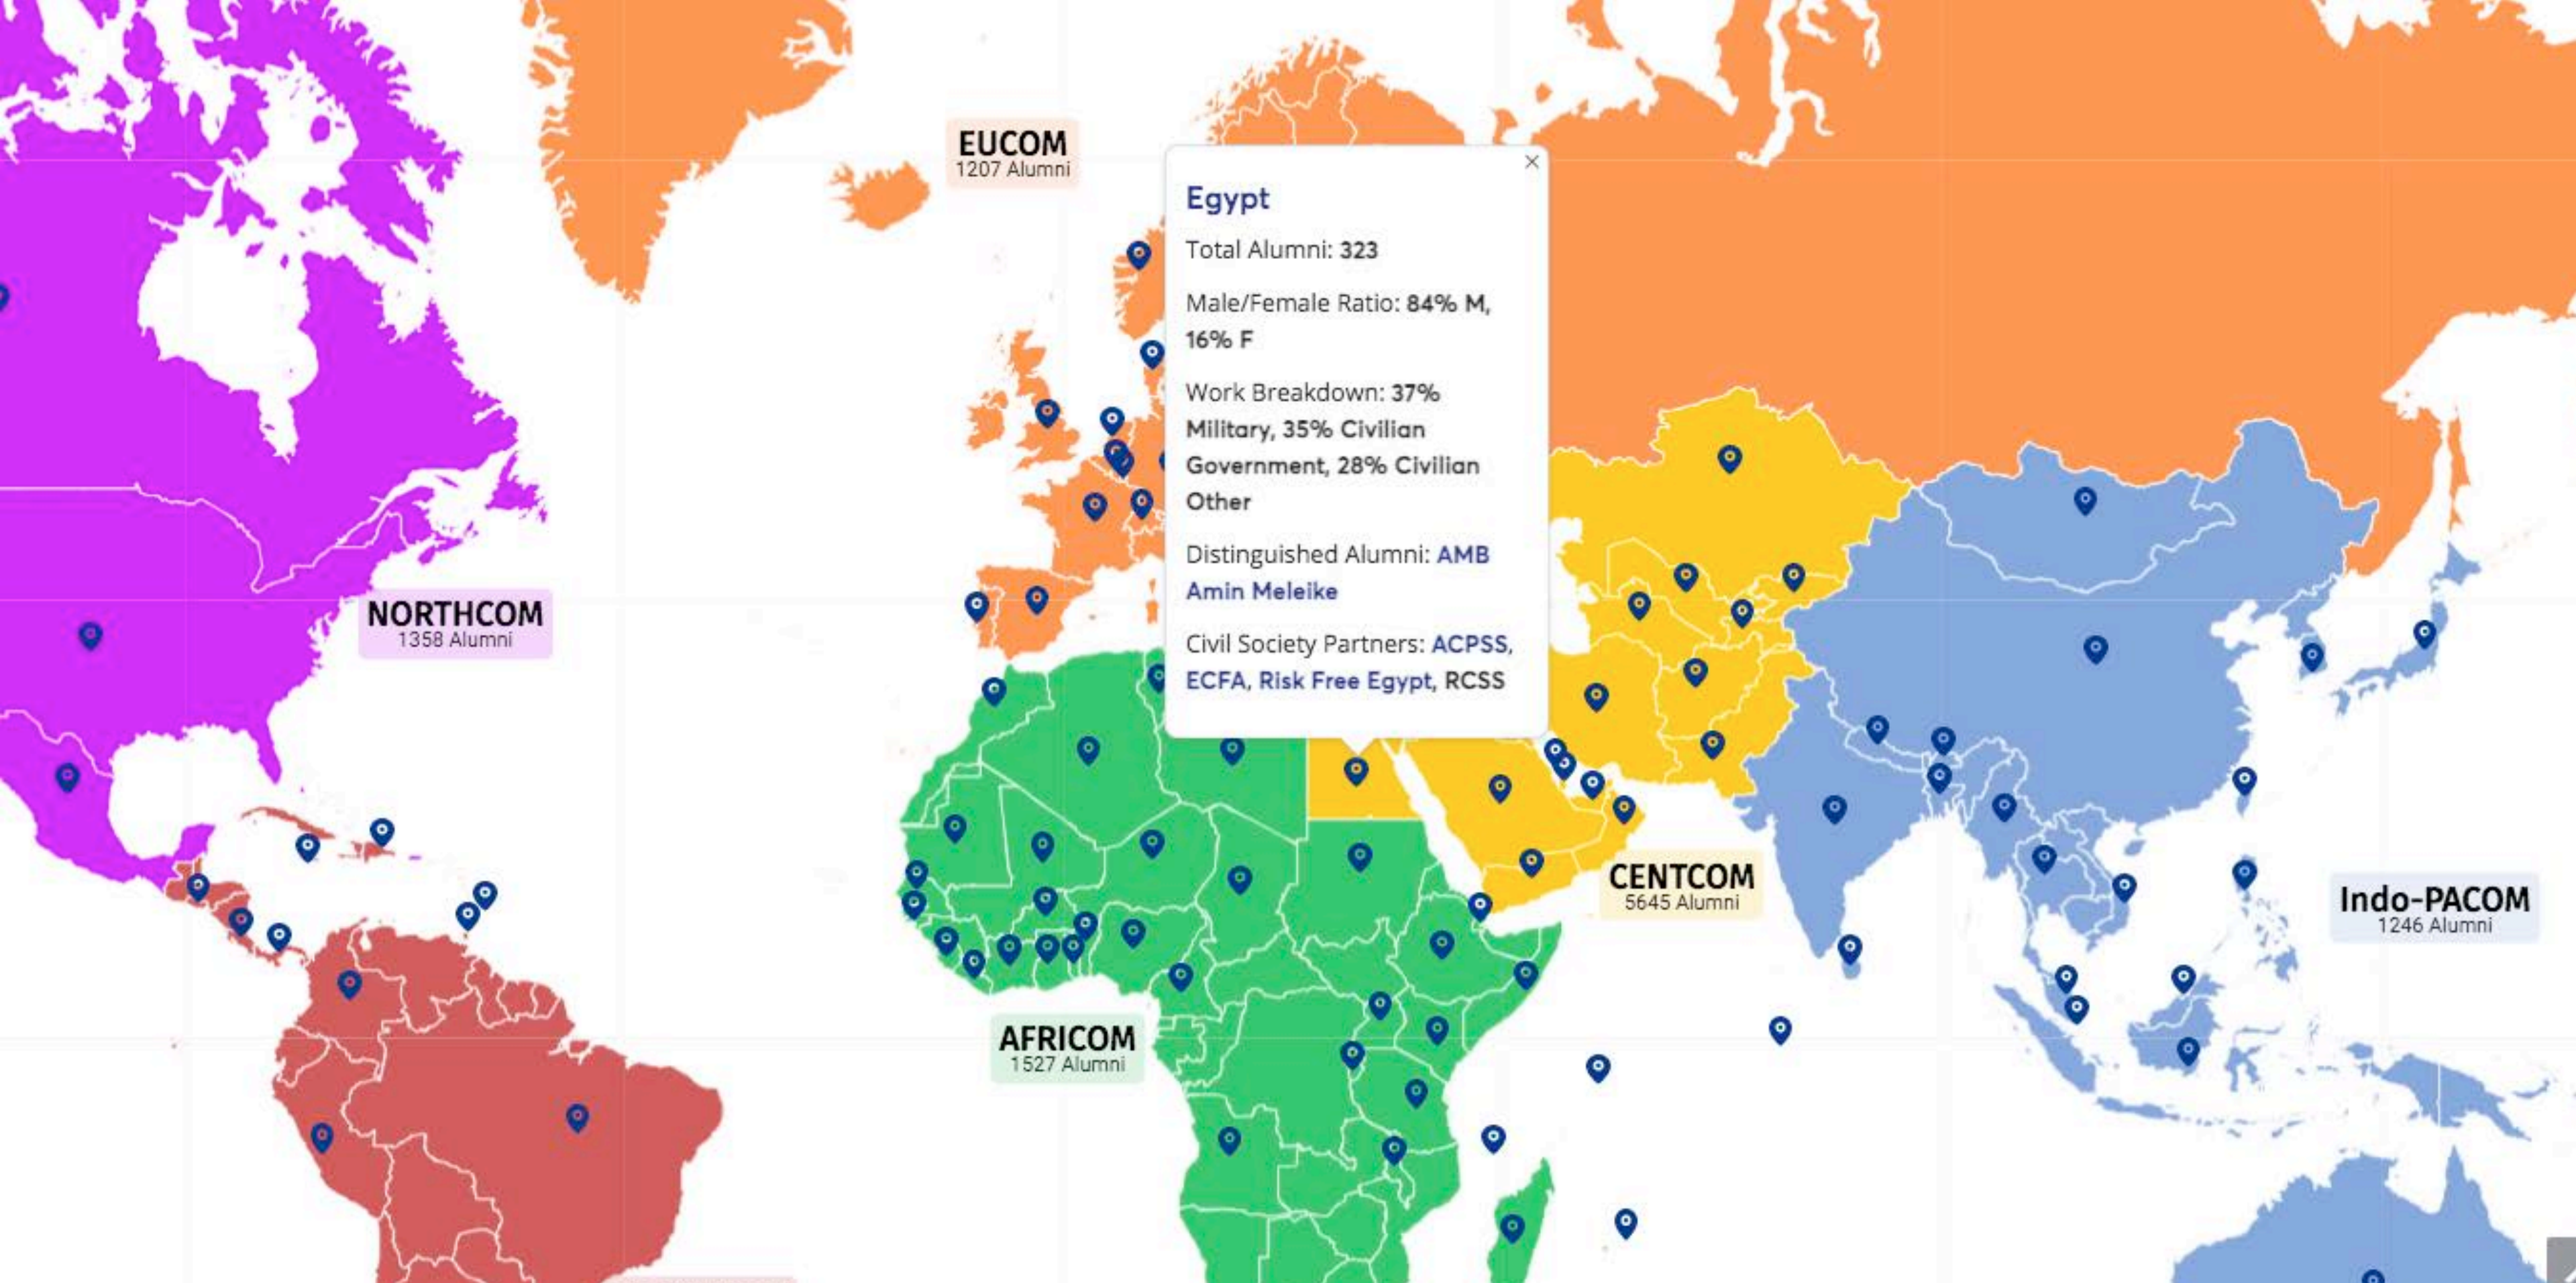

by NESA Professor Richard L. Russell 17 March 2021 The Biden administration has released an “Interim National Security Strategic Guidance.”[1] This interim report is intended to bridge the gap until the administration’s full national security strategy is published in the months ahead. Each presidential administration uses these national security strategies to share a general philosophy Read More >

Virtual Book Discussion With Dr. Uttam Kumar Sinha

Peter Klu | 05 Aug 2021

On 04 August 2021, Dr. Uttam Kumar Sinha of the Manohar Parrikar Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses (MP-IDSA) joined NESACSS and NDU faculty to discuss his new book, "Indus Basin Uninterrupted: A History of Territory and Politics from Alexander to Nehru." Dr. Sinha gave a sweeping overview of his book and answered a broad range of questions on the history of the Indus Basin and the current geopolitics of hydro-diplomacy within the South Asian context. NESACSS Professor Hassan Abbas served as the event moderator. Continue reading
