

Mr Aigars Mikiško

Director of the Crisis Management Department, Ministry of Defence of the Republic of Latvia

Mr. Mikiško is Director of the Crisis Management Department at the Ministry of Defence of the Republic of Latvia since August 2021.

Before taking up this post Mr. Mikiško was the Defence Counsellor at the Embassy of the Republic of Latvia to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

He has been working at the Ministry of Defence since November 2002. Being promoted for several positions at the Ministry of Defence, including the Head of Multilateral Relations and International Organizations Section, the Head of Defence Planning Section, Director of Defence Planning and Analysis Department Mr. Mikiško has acquired notable experience and knowledge in the defence policy, defence planning and crisis management issues.

Mr. Mikiško has Master degree in Political Sciences from the University of Latvia. He is also a graduate of the NATO Defence College Senior Course (SC-111).