

Kevin Moar – Strategic Coordinator (Foreign Interference), National Security Group, Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet

Kevin joined the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet in 2018, and in 2019 became New Zealand's first national strategic coordinator for countering foreign interference. He leads New Zealand's system on all elements of managing foreign interference, including state threats to our democratic institutions, to civil and political rights, and to our sustained economic prosperity. Prior to joining DPMC, he was principal advisor at the New Zealand Productivity Commission (an economic thinktank) and held senior policy and strategy roles at the New Zealand Ministries of Health and Education.
