

CDC Symposium Admin Announcements

- You can access the files and photos at dkiapcss.edu/cdc. The link is also on the back of your name tag. No password is needed.
- Our team will take down the photos and the participant list by the end of the day on Friday, 2 Feb, should you wish to save any files.
- Anyone needing parking validation, please approach me.
- We will collect your access cards before you depart. You can keep the name tag and lanyard.
- The white folder on your table is yours to keep. It contains a printout of the participant list that you all consent to share with the rest of the players. We also included a one-pager on the Alumni benefits and library resources in the packet. Our Chief of Alumni and Library departments will talk to you shortly about these alumni benefits. There's also an APCSS flyer for reference.
- You also have your certificate of participation on your table to include a print of the group photo. And, of course, as an APCSS alumni, you can wear the golden lanyard at the end of this symposium.
- Please check your flight departure and ensure you allow enough travel time to the airport. Please let us know if you have any transportation questions or need assistance.
- It has been a pleasure serving you all. Please have a safe trip, and we hope to see you again!
Thank you! Arigatou gozaimasu! Kamsahamnida!
