

CHO Nam-Hoon

Senior Research Fellow of Center for Security and Strategy, Korea Institute for Defense Analyses (KIDA)

Dr. Cho began his professional career as a researcher at KIDA in 1991. He mainly studies North Korean issues such as North Korean military, economy and its WMD strategies. In addition, he has been studying security environments and strategies in Northeast Asia. Dr. Cho served as a Chair of Committee on Future Strategic Studies in KIDA from 2021 to 2022. Before taking the position, he served as a Director of Center for Security and Strategy in KIDA from 2014 to 2015. Dr. Cho also has worked for Ministry of National Defense as a Senior Policy Advisor to Defense Minister from 2010 to 2013.