

Hane Kila

Hane Kila is from Papua New Guinea and is a Senior Legal Officer with the Papua New Guinea National Fisheries Authority with over 10 years of legal practice in various aspects of law including public international law, maritime law, commercial law and most recently, fisheries law. She attained her Bachelor of Law qualification from the University of PNG and is admitted to practice in the higher courts of PNG. She also has a Master's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Tasmania in Australia.