CONTENTS

COUNTERING TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME (CTOC)
Corruption
Drug Trafficking
Trafficking in Scarce or Protected Resources
Human Trafficking and Irregular Migration

PROGRAM ON CYBER SECURITY STUDIES (PCSS)
Internet Governance
Internet Freedom
Privacy and Security
Cyber Statecraft Development
Public/Private Partnership
Protection of Intellectual Property
Cyber Capacity Building
Combating Terrorism and Cyber Crime
Information Sharing
Cyber Protection of Critical Infrastructure

PROGRAM ON TERRORISM AND SECURITY STUDIES (PTSS)
ISIS
Terrorism Around the World
Radicalization and Messaging
Foreign Fighters
Counterterrorism Strategies

CONSEQUENCE MANAGEMENT
Dealing With Disasters
COUNTERING TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME (CTOC)

CORRUPTION

Saudi anti-corruption sweep leads to high-profile arrests
Becky Anderson and Sarah El Sirgany – CNN: 6 November 2017

Dozens of royal family members, officials and business executives have been arrested amid Saudi Arabia’s anti-corruption crackdown and face allegations of money laundering, bribery, extortion and exploiting public office for personal gain.

Blockchain to Fight Corruption in Southeast Asia
Voice of America: 4 November 2017

Blockchain technology is being tested to help combat corruption in supply chains, shedding light on otherwise secretive business practices.

For more on this theme:
Venezuela’s Anti-Corruption Crusade: Key Themes and Policy Considerations

SocGen investigated over possible French anti-corruption law breach

Tanzania’s anti-corruption crusader cracks down on opponents

Mexico report flags shortcomings in fight against corruption

SANDF general officer arrested in connection with corruption and fraud

Corruption hits most vulnerable; obliterates faith in good governance, UN chief tells forum in Vienna

Romanians protest changes in anti-corruption laws

Solomons to set up new Anti-Corruption Commission http://www.radionz.co.nz/international/pacific-news/343397/solomons-to-set-up-new-anti-corruption-commission
DRUG TRAFFICKING

Interdiction Efforts Adapt as Drug Trafficking in Africa Modernizes
Africa Center for Strategic Studies: 7 November 2017

Drug trafficking in Africa contributes to instability and conflict. As governments react, organized crime adapts, forcing law enforcement to change tactics to stay one step ahead.

https://africacenter.org/spotlight/interdiction-efforts-adapt-drug-trafficking-africa-modernizes/

Central American Naval Forces Receive Elite Antinarcotics Training
Kay Valle – Diálogo: 8 November 2017

Since 2012, the U.S. and Honduras have been working together to create and execute a special anti-narcotics operations course.

For more on this theme:

Mexico is on track for its bloodiest year ever – and it’s likely to get worse https://thinkprogress.org/mexico-cartel-problems-06b404748655/

“Dark Web” fuels illegal drug trade, experts say

Asean: Drug policies undermine social cohesion
http://opinion.inquirer.net/108564/asean-drug-policies-undermine-social-cohesion

The impact of the ‘war on drugs’ for female ‘mules’

The high seas
http://www.abc.net.au/news/2017-11-03/high-seas-war-on-drugs/8966752

Colombia signs $300m UN deal to fight cocaine production

Uruguay Short on Banks to Deal in Marijuana Funds

Mexico's Disastrous Drug War – Analysis
http://www.eurasiareview.com/03112017-mexicos-disastrous-drug-war-analysis/

Mexican Military, Backed By U.S. Anti-Drug Funds, Is Raping And Killing And Getting Away With It

California’s Race to Legal Pot: A Dispatch from the Front Lines
http://www.rollingstone.com/culture/features/californias-legal-pot-a-dispatch-from-the-front-lines-w511304

The Forest Service’s battle against illegal marijuana farms http://www.hcn.org/articles/the-forest-services-battle-against-illegal-marijuana-farms
TRAFFICKING IN SCARCE OR PROTECTED RESOURCES

Wildlife, drug trades cross bloody paths
Anchalee Kongrut – Bangkok Post: 8 November 2017

The border where Thailand, Burma and Laos meet is known as the Golden Triangle. Once solely a hub for drug production, the Triangle has now become a market for illicit wildlife traffickers as well.

https://www.bangkokpost.com/opinion/opinion/1356695/wildlife-drug-trades-cross-bloody-paths

Full report:

Top 10 Most Wanted: Endangered Species in the Markets of the Golden Triangle
http://static1.1.sqspcdn.com/static/f/157301/27736219/1509607503480/WWF-Greater-Mekong-Top-Ten-report.pdf?token=7Ju8wYuet%2B%2FbUv8fDk1dQlDx1Y%3D

African Nations Are Sharing Data to Crack Down on Illegal Fishing
Paul Tullis – Oceans Deeply: 7 November 2017

An initiative led by the Pew Charitable Trusts called FISH-i Africa coordinates the efforts of eight East African countries to catch illegal fishing in the region.

For more on this theme:

Smuggled, Beaten and Drugged: The Illicit Global Ape Trade

What has the EU got to do with elephant protection?
https://www.neweurope.eu/article/eu-got-elephant-protection/

Australia might water down illegal logging laws – here’s why it’s a bad idea

Thieves Are Breaking Into Zoos and Stealing Rare Animals

Rare victory for rainforests as nations vow to stop ‘death by chocolate’

The EU has to fight for our nature and the rule of law
https://www.euractiv.com/section/energy-environment/opinion/the-eu-has-to-fight-for-our-nature-and-the-rule-of-law/

In South Sudan, just 2 dogs patrol for wildlife trafficking https://www.apnews.com/1424c16bd8c44d038caf390fe50d7099/In-South-Sudan,-just-2-dogs-patrol-for-wildlife-trafficking
HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND IRREGULAR MIGRATION

EU-Horn of Africa migration policy inherently flawed, new report suggests Deutsche Welle: 7 November 2017
The European Union-Horn of Africa Migration Route Initiative, also known as the Khartoum Process, is endangering migrants rather than helping them, according to a report from several human rights organizations.

Traffickers prey on lost Rohingya children in Bangladesh camps
Katie Arnold – Reuters: 7 November 2017
With the refugee camps in Bangladesh overflowing with Rohingya Muslims, it is easy for children to become separated from their parents. It is in these moments that human traffickers prey on the youth, looking to turn them into maids and laborers.

For more on this theme:
- Migrant Smugglers Are Winning. Here’s Why
- ‘Why smuggling of migrants should be urgently tackled’
- How to Make Libya a Place to Live and Work for Migrants
- They know the risks and still they come: why young Africans chase the European dream
- Curbing the menace of human trafficking
- Human trafficking for sex: Thousands of girls live in slavery while society remains silent
- How kidnappings, terrorism fuel irregular migration – HURIWA
- Human traffickers lure UK’s homeless into modern slavery: charities
PROGRAM ON CYBER SECURITY STUDIES (PCSS)

INTERNET GOVERNANCE

China to hold 4th World Internet Conference in December
Xinhua: 5 November 2017
China will host the fourth World Internet Conference from December 3 to 5, 2017. The conference will bring together government, international organizations, businesses and non-governmental organizations to discuss a myriad of internet-related topics that includes internet governance.
http://news.xinhuanet.com/english/2017-11/05/c_136730050.htm

For more on this theme:
(Global) Children’s online safety and the significance of positive online content

INTERNET FREEDOM

Afghanistan Blocks Social Media Services
Ayaz Gul – Voice of America: 3 November 2017
Afghanistan’s government has ordered a block on messaging services WhatsApp and Telegram, according to a letter sent to the country’s internet providers that was widely shared over social media.

For more on this theme:
(Indonesia) After WhatsApp threat, Indonesia steps up Internet obscenity purge (China) A prestigious research publisher gives in to China’s censorship https://www.washingtonpost.com/opinions/a-prestigious-research-publisher-gives-into-chinas-censorship/2017/11/04/4e4ff9de-c0c6-11e7-959c-fe2b598d8c00_story.html
(Global) Five Tips to Prevent Censorship
https://www.huffingtonpost.com/entry/dont-let-censorship-be-the-answer-to-our-highjacked_us_5a00899de4b0d467d4c226e9
(Africa) Freeing Africa’s Internet
PRIVACY AND SECURITY

India Begins to Embrace Digital Privacy
Spandana Singh – Slate: 3 November 2017

A recent court ruling in India acknowledging that privacy is a fundamental constitutional right will greatly affect the country’s 1.32 billion citizens in the world’s largest democracy.

For more on this theme:

(U.S.) Verizon Wants the FCC to Overturn State Internet Privacy Laws

(Global) The Decade of Security and Privacy
https://www.huffingtonpost.com/entry/the-decade-of-security-and-privacy_us_5a008dc3e4b0d467d4c226ef

(Global) It’s Time to Change the Cybersecurity Conversation

CYBER STATECRAFT DEVELOPMENT

Kim Jong Un’s North Korea is — cautiously — going online

Thought highly controlled, North Korea is moving slowly toward a greater online presence. But while the elite have freedom, most citizens are relegated to the national intranet, which is heavily censored.

For more on this theme:

(Iran) Iran’s hacking ability improving: Israeli general

(NATO) NATO just added cyber weapons to its armoury

(Europe) Europe Slowly Starts to Talk Openly About Offensive Cyber Operations
https://www.cfr.org/blog/europe-slowly-starts-talk-openly-about-offensive-cyber-operations
PUBLIC/PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP

European Space Agency, ViaSat partner to create high-speed broadband satellites
Charlie Osborne – ZDNet: 6 November 2017

The European Space Agency and ViaSat Antenna Systems have signed an agreement to develop satellites in a public/private partnership that will boost the speed and capacity of broadband in Europe.

http://www.zdnet.com/article/european-space-agency-viasat-team-up-to-create-high-speed-broadband-satellites/

For more on this theme:
(Nigeria) 53% of Nigerians lack Internet access https://guardian.ng/technology/53-of-nigerians-lack-internet-access/

(South Africa) Will South Africa get an open access wireless network?

(Malaysia) Malaysia’s Digital Free Trade Zone goes live with 1,972 SMEs

PROTECTION OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

ICANN Meeting Fails To Resolve Privacy Law Clash
Ben Hancock – The Recorder: 3 November 2017

A meeting of the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) was unable to bridge the gap between ICANN rules and European privacy laws. The ICANN rules are focused on identifying intellectual property violators and are in direct juxtaposition to the privacy laws.

For more on this theme:
(U.S., Global) Court demands that search engines and internet service providers block Sci-Hub

(U.S., China) Chinese theft of sensitive US military technology is still a ‘huge problem,’ says defense analyst

(U.S.) Digital age changes all the rules on intellectual property
CYBER CAPACITY BUILDING

UAE youth eager to pursue cybersecurity careers: survey
Jeevan Thankappan – Tahawul Tech: 7 November 2017

A new survey shows that young people in the United Arab Emirates are more likely than similar age groups in other countries to choose a career in cyber security.

For more on this theme:

(Africa) ECOWAS ICT ministers reinforce digital access goals

(Australia) Australia likely to get its own GDPR

(Peru) Speedcast and SES Networks Partner in Latin America to Provide Fibre-like Connectivity
http://www.spacedaily.com/reports/Speedcast_and_SES_Networks_Partner_in_Latin_America_to_Provide_Fibre_like_Connectivity_999.html

COMBATING TERRORISM AND CYBER CRIME

New tech that can fight cybercrime in the year 2020
Amit Jaju – Live Mint: 9 November 2017

As cyber crime grows more sophisticated and more devices become connected to the internet, governments and businesses need to focus on data protection and adopting a culture of improved governance.

For more on this theme:

(Ghana) Judges Receive Training On Cybercrime & Electronic Evidence

(Global) Fast-growing cyber crime threatens financial sector: Europol

(Colombia) Colombian Armed Forces Counter Cybercrime
INFORMATION SHARING

In a Cyberattack, DHS Urges Information Sharing
Morgan Lynch – MeriTalk: 6 November 2017

Information sharing is critical in the event of a cyber attack. Releasing timely and accurate details can help prevent further problems.
https://www.meritalk.com/articles/in-a-cyberattack-dhs-urges-information-sharing/

For more on this theme:
(Scotland) Scottish Government Launches Cyber Resilience Action Plan

(U.S.) Tactical cybersecurity: Military war-gaming comes to healthcare

(Azerbaijan) Baku hosts 9th Annual International Conference on cyber security https://azertag.az/en/xeber/Baku_hosts_9th_Annual_International_Conference_on_cyber_security-1109579

CYBER PROTECTION OF CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE

US Army, Navy Cyber Commands Ready Far Ahead of Schedule
Joseph Marks – Defense One: 3 November 2017

United States Cyber Command formed teams to defend Defense Department networks, ensure data security, support military goals and protect U.S. critical infrastructure. The Army and Navy components of those teams have reached operational capability almost a year before their deadline.

For more on this theme:
(U.S.) Annual cyber security summit focuses on protecting critical infrastructure

(India) Critical infrastructure on target: A cyber attack that could be worse than war

(Global) Cybersecurity Lessons From Critical Infrastructure
ISIS

Is Islamic State losing control of its ‘virtual caliphate’?
Charlie Winter – BBC: 9 November 2017

With its territorial losses, ISIS will not be as formidable. What is interesting, however, is that its propaganda machine is more subdued than ever. ISIS will remain a force to be reckoned with, but moving to a “virtual caliphate” seems to be more difficult than anticipated.

How Is ISIS Able to Commit Acts of Terror as It Loses Territory?
Jacqueline R. Sutherland – The National Interest: 8 November 2017

ISIS’ move to global attacks has been noted as a last-ditch effort to remain relevant as it loses territory. But the formation in 2014 of the Emni, the branch charged with global attacks, belies this assumption. It was not a reactionary effort, but a long-planned branch of attack.

For more on this theme:
The caliphate's collapse: A look at Islamic State losses

Islamic State’s footprint spreading in northern Somalia: U.N.

Fall Of Raqqa Delivers Sharp Blow To Islamic State's Media Operation

Philippines Hunts for Possible New Islamic State ‘Emir’ in South East Asia

What draws ‘lone wolves’ to the Islamic State?
https://www.pbs.org/newshour/nation/what-draws-lone-wolves-to-the-islamic-state

Islamic State lurks in Philippine shadows http://www.atimes.com/article/islamic-state-lurks-philippine-shadows/

Italy says seized opiates meant to finance Islamic State

How Islamic State Communicates With Followers
http://www.wbur.org/hereandnow/2017/11/03/islamic-state-communications
TERRORISM AROUND THE WORLD

Taliban touts “Special Forces Unit”
Bill Roggio – Long War Journal: 6 November 2017

The Afghan Taliban has been lauding and promoting its "special forces unit" since 2015, but the push to gain recognition has recently intensified.

Osama bin Laden’s son calls for terrorists to avenge his father’s death
Lizzie Dearden – Independent: 8 November 2017

Al-Qaida has released a new audio message from Hamza bin Laden titled, “Osama ... The Fighter Against Invaders And the Inciter of Rebellion Against Tyrants.” The junior bin Laden touts his father as a hero and calls for terrorists to rise up and avenge his death.

For more on this theme:

21 Years of War with Al Qaeda?
https://www.justsecurity.org/46746/21-years-war-al-qaeda/

My enemy’s enemy is my ally: How al-Qaeda fighters are backed by Yemen’s government

How the Al-Qaeda affiliated group Ansar Al-Islam climbed to be one of Egypt’s most wanted militant groups?

Taliban on autopilot

The Iran-Hamas-Hezbollah Connection
https://www.gatestoneinstitute.org/11330/iran-hamas-hezbollah

Israel’s Coming War with Hezbollah
http://www.weeklystandard.com/israels-coming-war-with-hezbollah/article/2010333

Palestinian Police Chief Says Hamas Must Give up Gaza Arms

Boko Haram Still on the Prowl
RADICALIZATION AND MESSAGING

How the Islamic State uses ‘virtual lessons’ to build loyalty
André Gagné and Marc-André Argentino – The Conversation: 5 November 2017

Influential members of ISIS’s digital community maintain the organization’s identity and sense of purpose through lessons and ISIS propaganda shared in the context of a virtual study group.

EU Has ‘a Lot to Learn’ from Morocco in Fighting Radicalization: Anti-Terror Chief
Amira El Masaiti – Morocco World News: 8 November 2017

“Morocco has managed to develop a very early detection system of radicalization signs,” said Gilles de Kerchove, European Union counterterrorism coordinator. He opined that the system would be useful for Europe.

For more on this theme:

DPM: Zamihan successful in rehabilitating Islamic State militants
http://www.themalaymailonline.com/malaysia/article/dpm-zamihan-successful-in-rehabilitating-islamic-state-militants#d8beHrMQdU5kAH.97

Islamic State Militants Run Recruitment Camps in Uzbekistan

ISIS is spread like herpes, through close contact

Nigeria’s army set up a soccer league to stop Boko Haram from radicalizing youth

Expert warns of further radicalization after Marawi siege

Majlis Podcast: Outside Central Asia, Where The Radicalization Happens

Inside the struggle to de-radicalize Islamic extremists in France’s prisons

For Central Asians, radicalization often begins abroad
http://www.cantonrep.com/opinion/20171105/for-central-asians-radicalization-often-begins-abroad

To confront terrorism’s core, don’t neglect counter-extremism policies
FOREIGN FIGHTERS

Scrambling to Track Islamic State Terrorists, Coalition Turns to Biometrics
Jeff Seldin – Voice of America: 8 November 2017

The collection of biometric information from those who fought for or worked with ISIS in Syria is just one way of trying to catalog and control foreign fighters and their supporters.

For more on this theme:

What Happens when Montenegro Citizens Return Home After Fighting in Foreign Wars?

‘Do we have a plan to stop Trini terrorists returning?’

Belgian counter-terrorism expert: Home-grown terrorists bigger threat than returning foreign jihadists

COUNTERTERRORISM STRATEGIES

How Can America Hit ISIS ‘Harder’ When the Caliphate Is Gone?
Krishnadev Calamur – The Atlantic: 3 November 2017

Once ISIS is fully underground, the idea that the U.S. can force the group to pay for attacks on American soil becomes more unlikely. With fewer targets left, options become more limited for stopping the group’s attacks.

For more on this theme:

Here’s How ISIS Could Be Charged At The International Criminal Court
https://www.buzzfeed.com/lesterfeder/these-lawyers-have-a-case-for-charging-isis-with-killing?utm_term=.riRoJ5pq#.ldnYRt18L

Can A Fence Help In Fighting Terrorism In Pakistan And Afghanistan?

Universal counterterrorism, an existential requirement
CONSEQUENCE MANAGEMENT

DEALING WITH DISASTERS

Nations better shielded from disasters, Pacific most at risk: study
Reuters: 7 November 2017

Many nations have learned from previous disasters and improved their preparedness, while Pacific Island nations remain most at risk, according to the World Risk Report.

Full report:
World Risk Report 2017

Facebook Brings In Disaster Response Tools To India
Press Trust of India: 9 November 2017

Facebook is introducing several initiatives to improve the response and rebuilding efforts after natural disasters in India. Facebook can help response organizations paint a more complete picture of where affected people are located to determine where resources are needed.

For more on this theme:
How Young Leaders Are Strengthening Community Responses To Disasters

Preparedness key to tackling El Niño https://www.nrc.no/expert-deployment/2016/2017/preparedness-key-to-tackling-el-nino/

Rising to the Tsunami Challenge
https://www.huffingtonpost.com/entry/rising-to-the-tsunami-challenge_us_59fba9fee4b01ec0d8e40e0

A Small Island Country Steps Forward to Unite the World Behind Climate Action

Panel focuses on mitigating impacts of disasters on heritage sites

UN advises Caribbean nations to adopt disaster risk management