

Mr. Michael Laychak, a member of the Senior Executive Service, is currently serving as the Director of the Defense Technology Security Administration (DTSA). In this capacity, he manages a staff of over 190 policy analysts, engineers, security specialists, and licensing officers responsible for developing and implementing DoD technology security and foreign disclosure policies for international transfers of defense-related goods, services, information, and technology. Concurrently, he is the Chairman of the National Military Information Disclosure Policy Committee, responsible for the formulation and promulgation of U.S. National Disclosure Policy governing the disclosure of U.S. classified military information to foreign governments.